

Learning from the past

Looking to the future

Church Motto 2008

Philippians 3:12

I press on to take hold of that for which Christ Jesus took hold of me.

Philippians 3:1-14

- See ourselves from God's perspective—do not put confidence in our credentials, confidence or experience.

See the past from God's perspective—forgetting our past mistakes, grievances & accomplishments.

See the future from God's perspective—straining forward to what is ahead & pressing on towards the goal.

Reflecting individually upon the past year

- Think about one good thing personally that you have experienced this and how that has shaped you*

*Think of one thing where you failed this year;
how can you learn from this?*

Commit these to God and ask Him to teach you through it 5 minutes

Reflecting corporately upon the past year

- Think of one thing that we as a Church community can give thanks for.

Think of one thing that we have struggled through as a community this year and what can we learn from it.

Let's share together the good and struggles

Let's commit these to God together

Looking to the future

this year?*

- How do you want to grow in knowledge and wisdom this year?
