

Walking together in ministry and mission

Micah 6.6-8

Philippians 2.1-11

The background is a solid dark blue color. Scattered across the background are several white footprints of varying sizes and orientations, suggesting a path or journey. The footprints are stylized and appear to be walking towards the right side of the frame.

How?

Take no gold, or silver,
or copper in your belts,
no bag for your journey,
or two tunics,
or sandals, or a staff;
for labourers deserve
their food.

Matt. 10.9,10

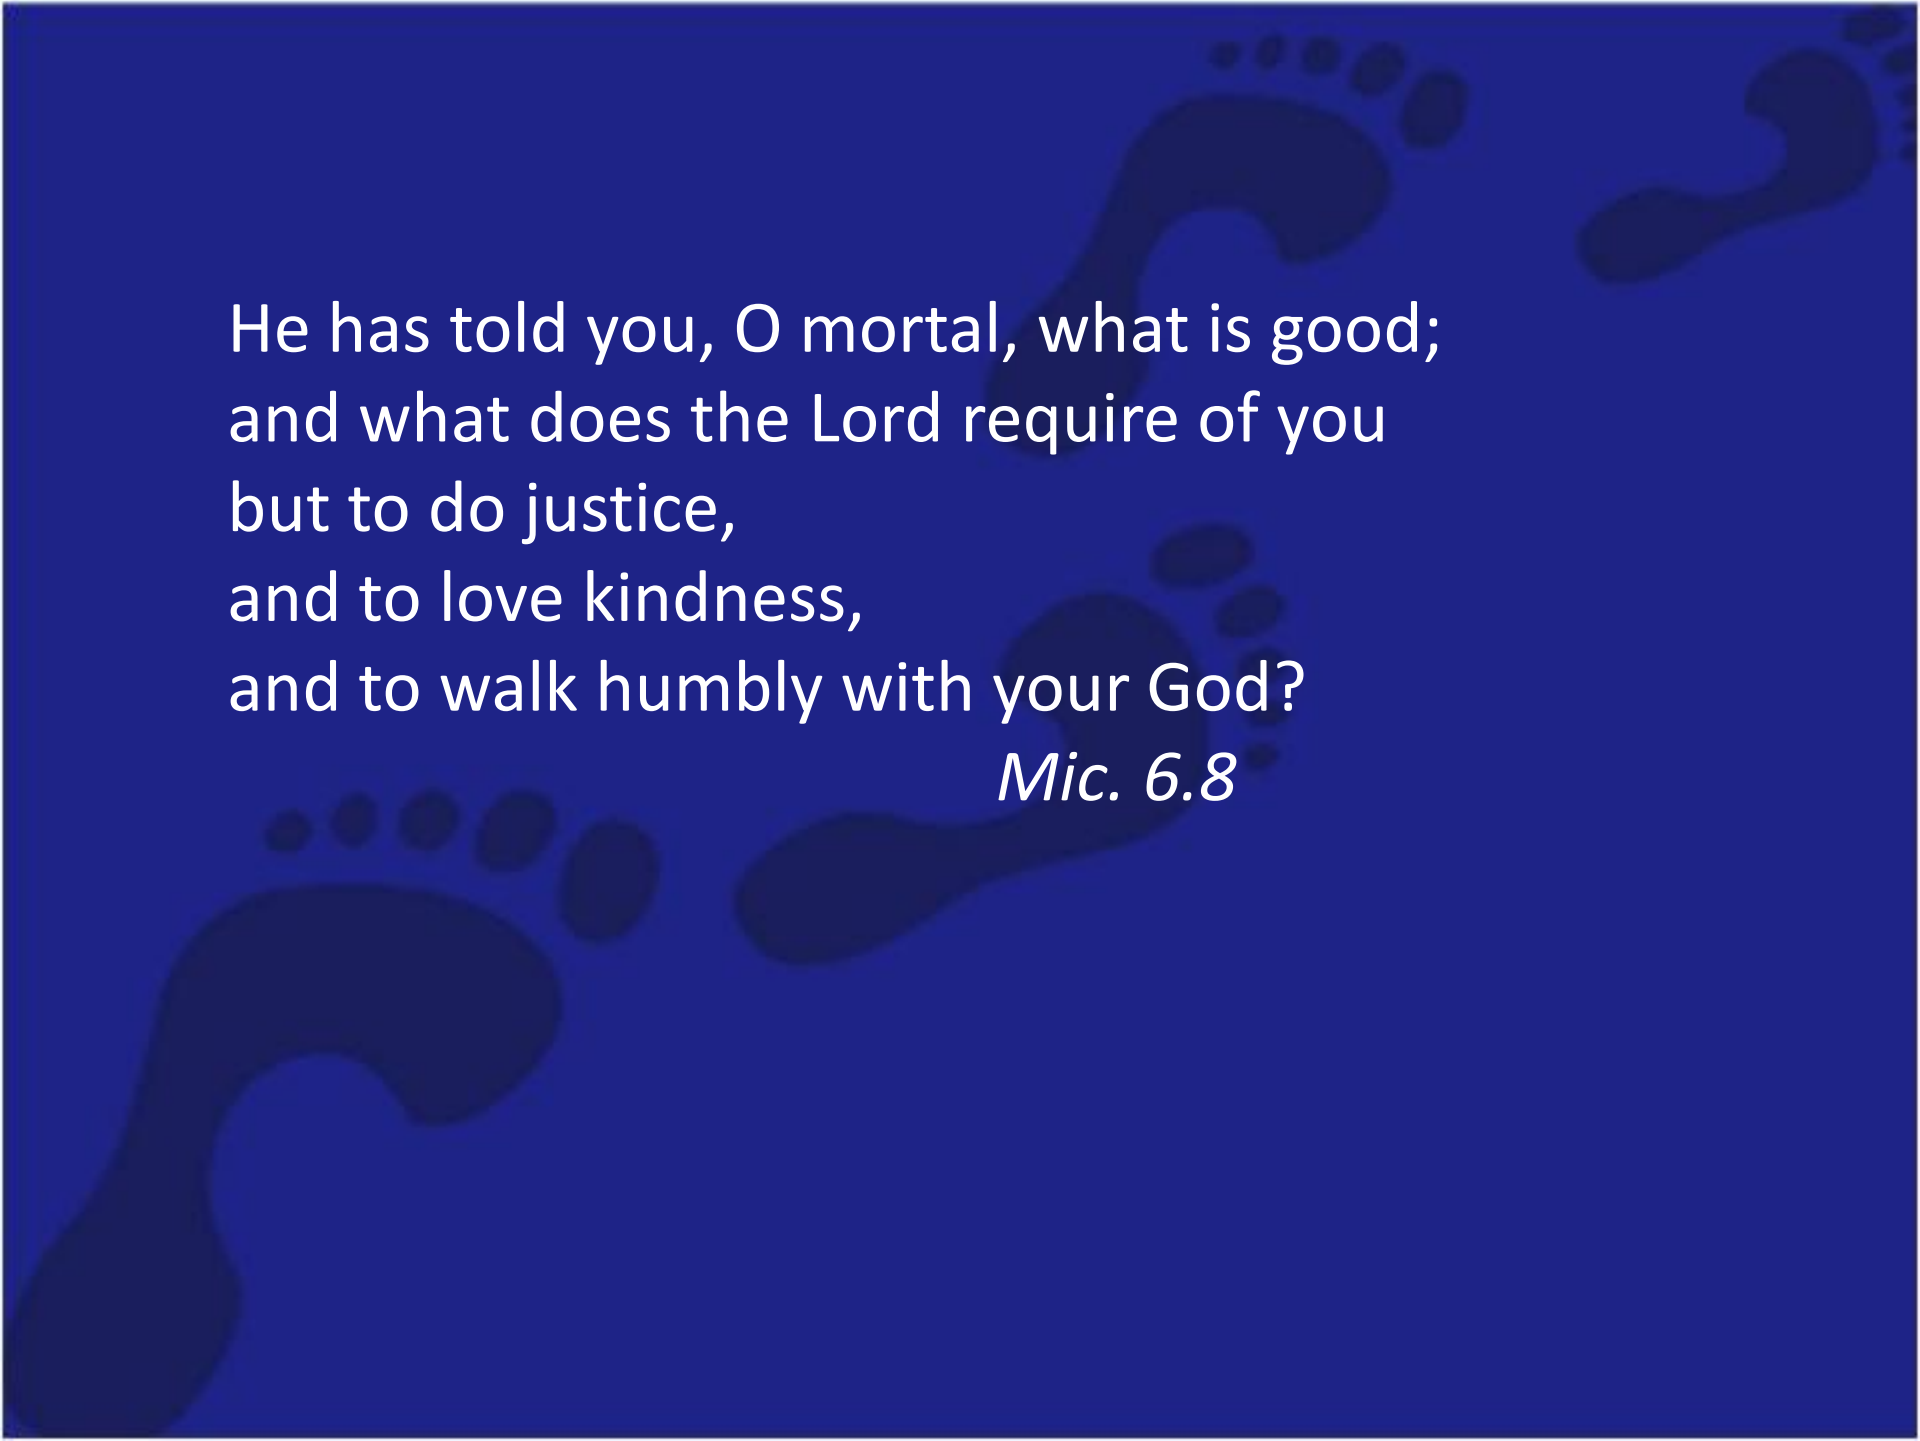

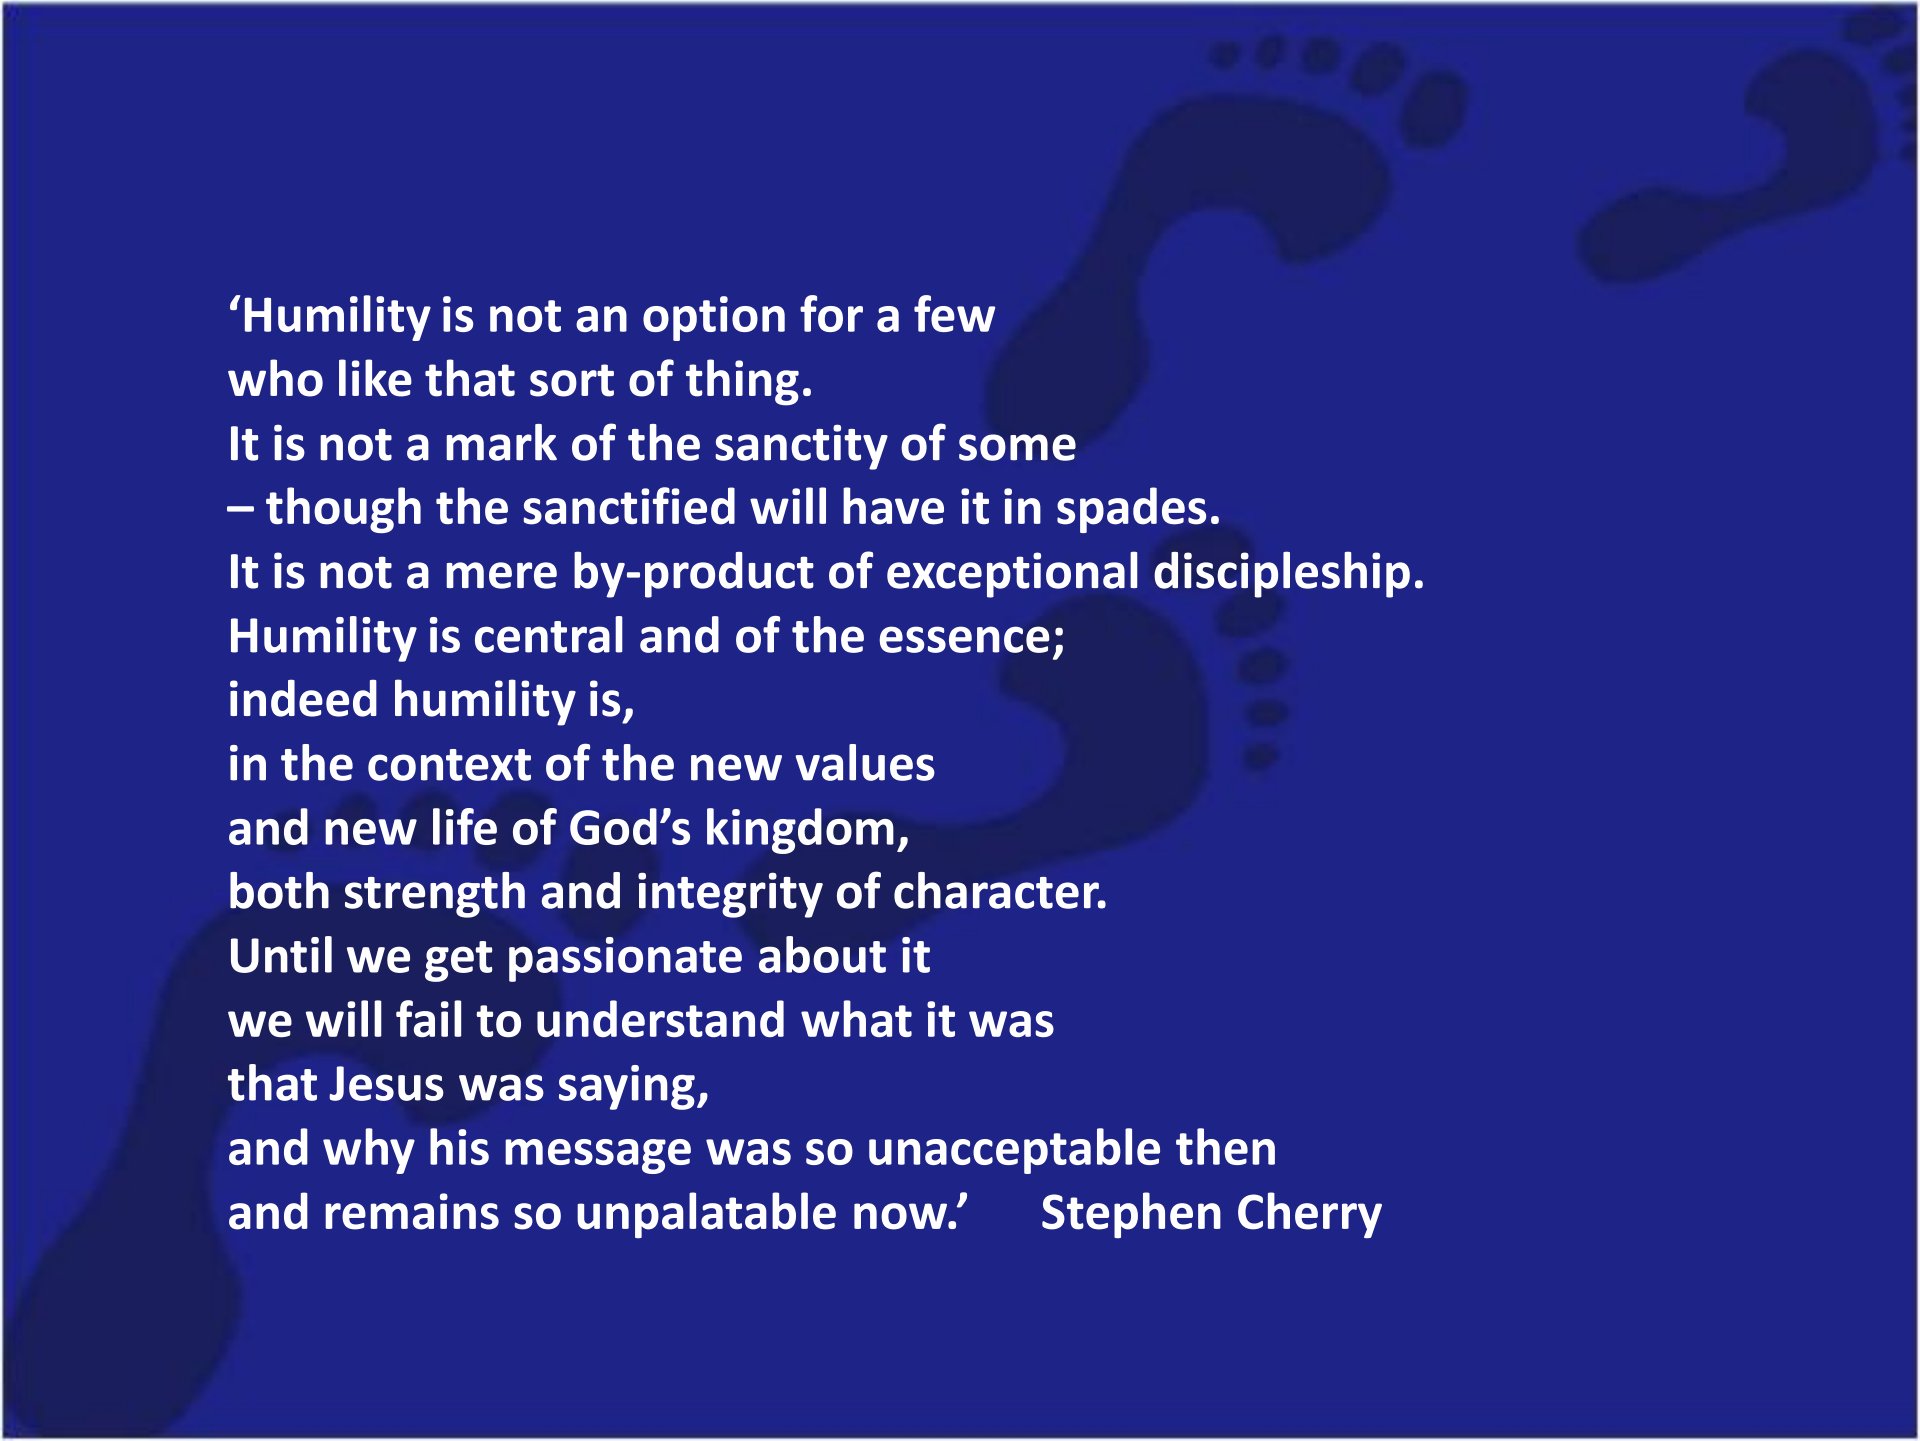

He has told you, O mortal, what is good;
and what does the Lord require of you
but to do justice,
and to love kindness,
and to walk humbly with your God?

Mic. 6.8

‘Humility is not an option for a few who like that sort of thing.
It is not a mark of the sanctity of some
– though the sanctified will have it in spades.
It is not a mere by-product of exceptional discipleship.
Humility is central and of the essence;
indeed humility is,
in the context of the new values
and new life of God’s kingdom, both strength and integrity of character.
Until we get passionate about it we will fail to understand what it was that Jesus was saying,
and why his message was so unacceptable then and remains so unpalatable now.’ Stephen Cherry

HUMILITY

Humility is not thinking less of yourself, it's thinking of yourself less.

'Do nothing out of selfish ambition or a cheap desire to boast'

'Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus'

Humility happens when you're not looking for it.
