One thing I do: Forgetting what is behind and straining towards what is ahead, I press on towards the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenwards in Christ Jesus.

Philippians 3:13-14

A person is seen from behind, climbing a large, textured rock. A large, smooth, light-colored stone is balanced on top of the rock. The background is a warm, yellowish-orange sky. The text is overlaid on the image in a white, bold, sans-serif font with a black outline.

One thing we do: Forgetting what is behind and straining towards what is ahead, we press on towards the goal to win the prize for which God has called us heavenwards in Christ Jesus.

Community

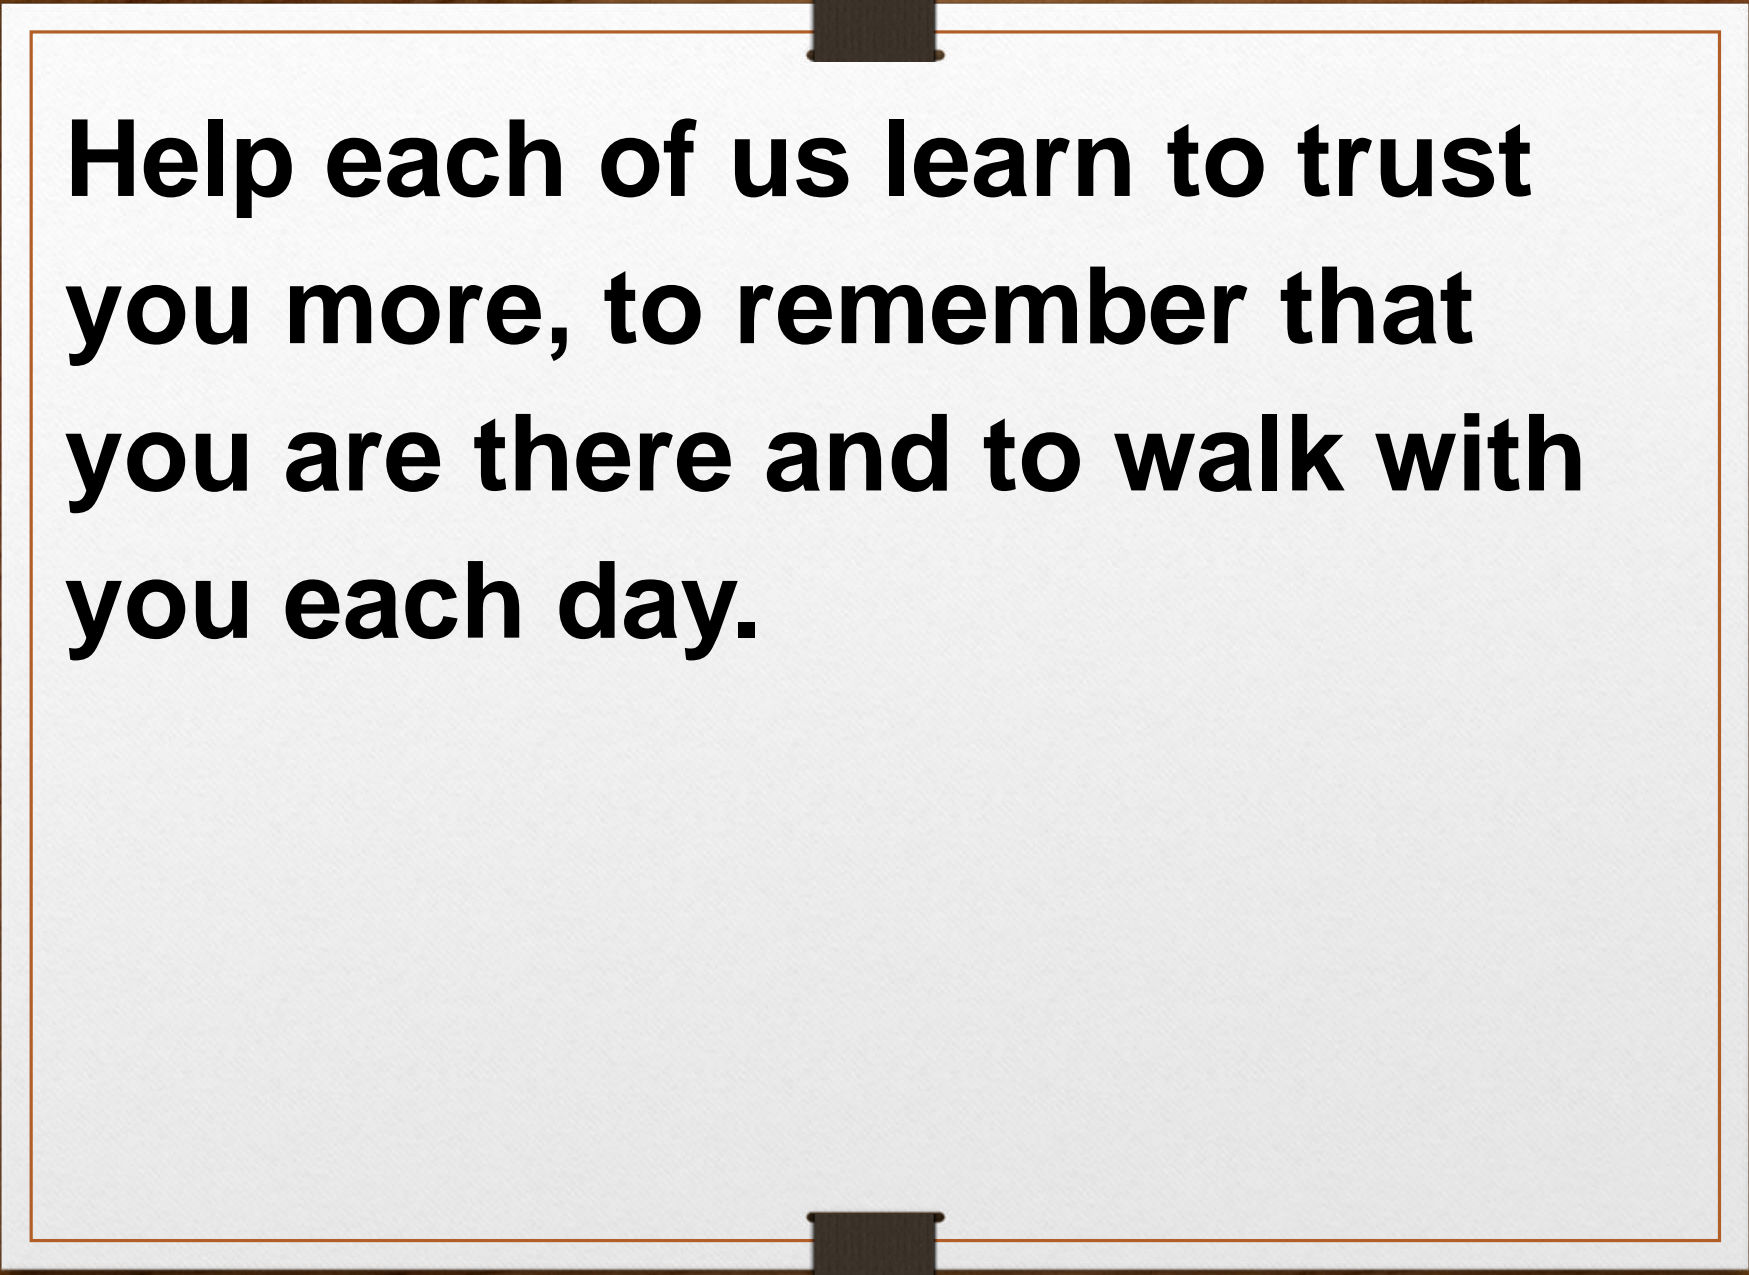

to the glory of God.

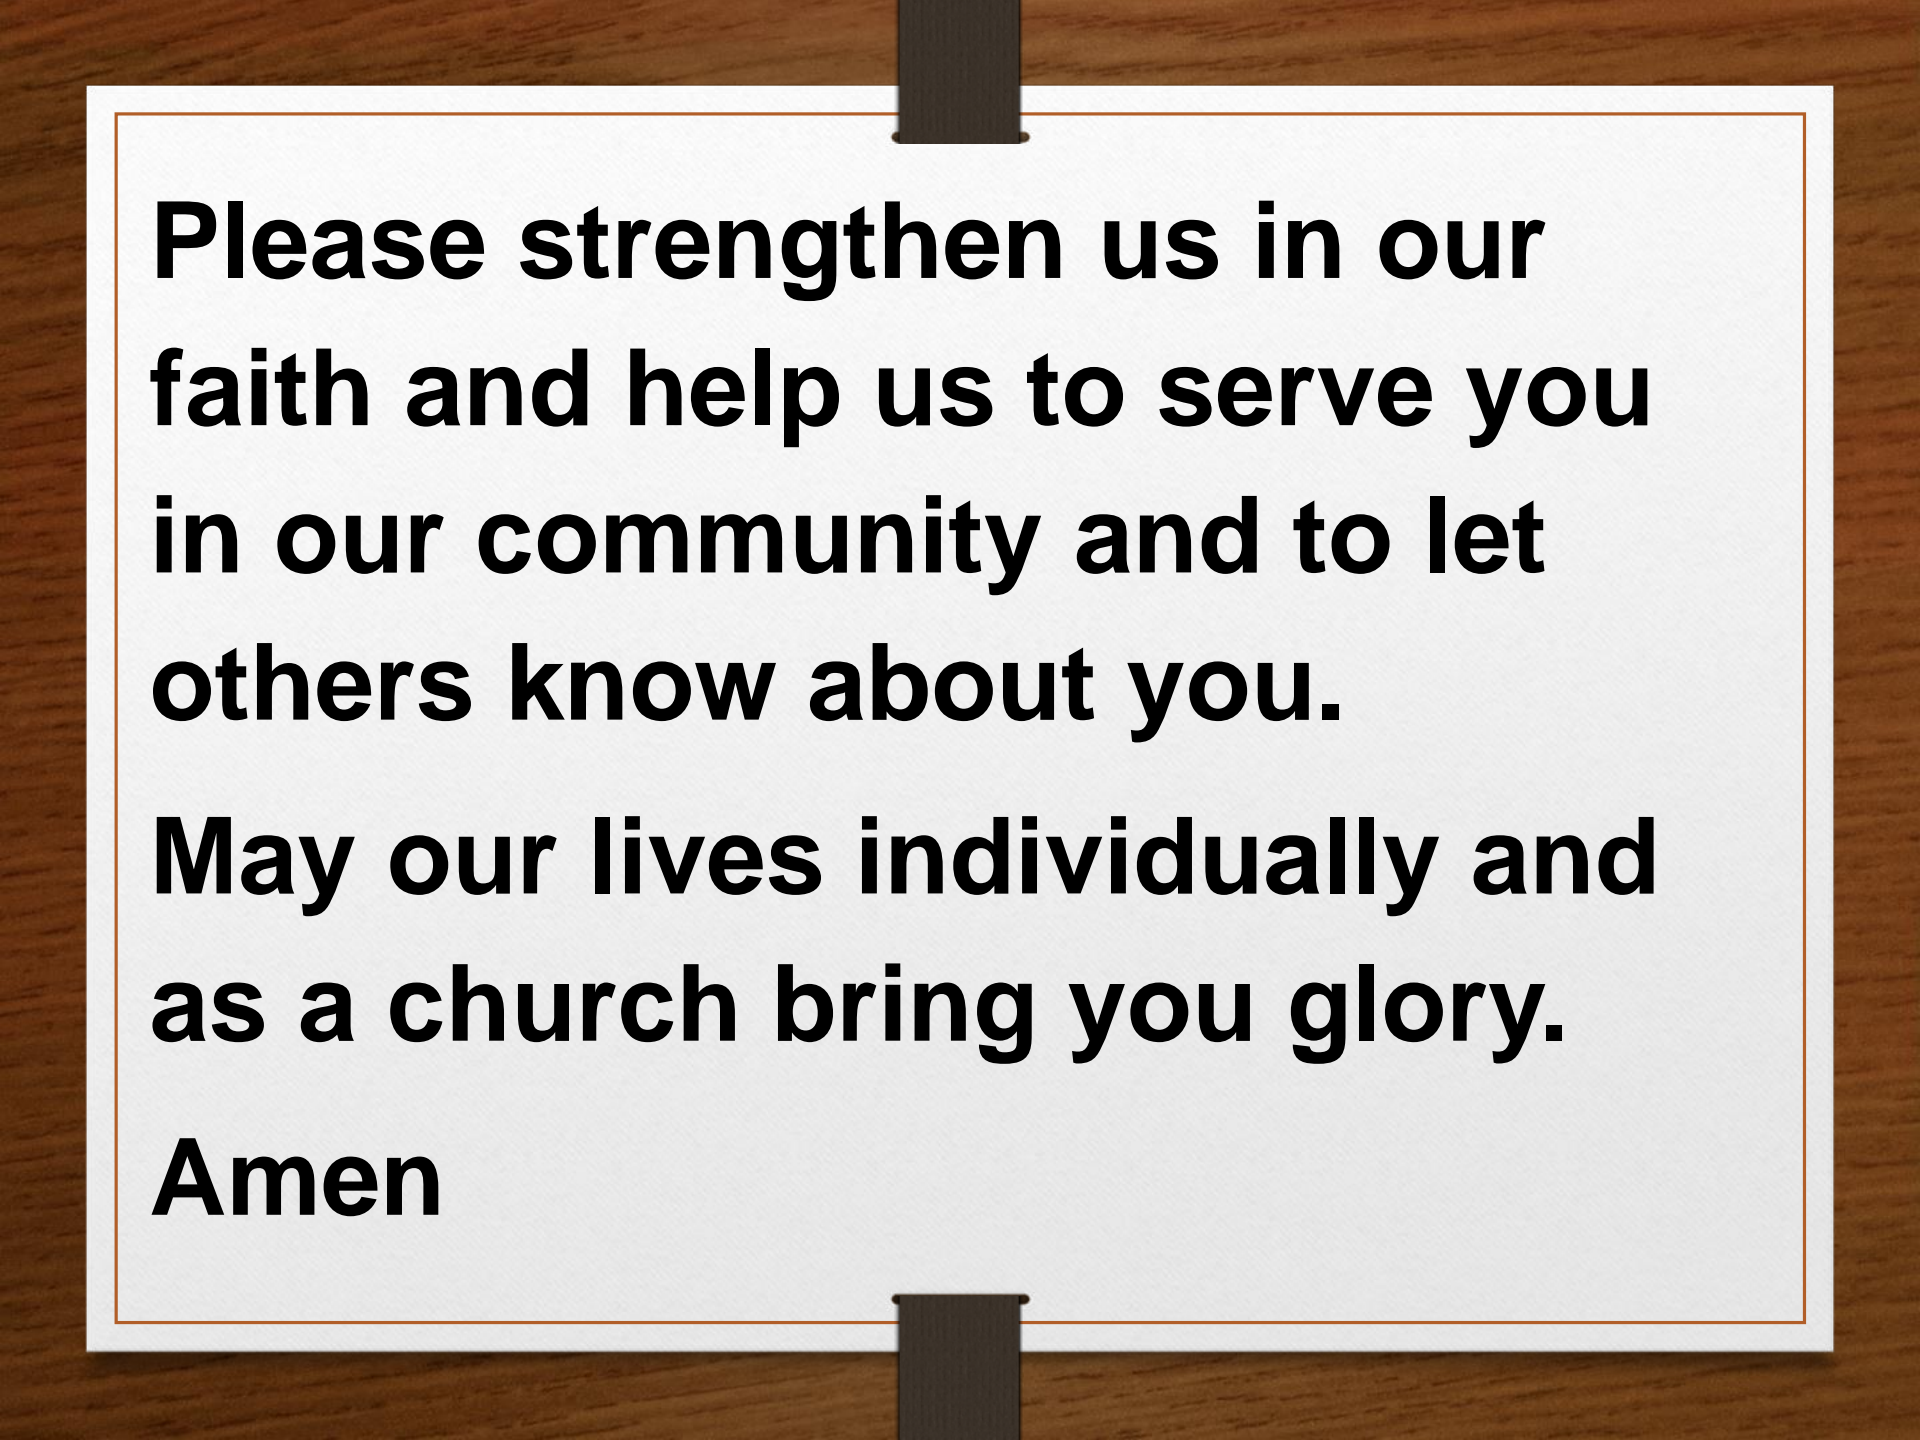

Father God,

We come to you at the dawn of a new year and we offer you our lives.

Thank you that you are there for us whether we are anxious and fearful or hopeful and excited.

Help each of us learn to trust you more, to remember that you are there and to walk with you each day.

Please strengthen us in our faith and help us to serve you in our community and to let others know about you.

May our lives individually and as a church bring you glory.

Amen
